

Druggist, Auxiliary Installed

The South Bay Pharmaceutical Association and Women's Auxiliary held their annual combined installation dinner dance on Saturday evening at the Palos Verdes Country Club, Palos Verdes Estates.

Honored guest and installing officer was Professor Edward S. Brady III, of the University of Southern California.

Another highlight of the evening was the presentation of an award to the association and auxiliary from the QSA Centurion club of the University of Southern California by Professor Brady, in appreciation of a recent $500 gift. The object of QSA is to continue the advancement of the Pharmacy profession through the School of Pharmacy.

New officers installed in the Women's Auxiliary were Mmes. Lee Solomon, president; Douglas Ingle, first vice president; James Kamada, second vice president; Charles Bogolea, secretary; C. P. Abler, treasurer.
